

Puzzle 6

Directions: Move the pieces according to standard chess rules, however, each move must result in another piece being captured. At the end of a game there should only be one piece on the board. Note: the pawn moves forward as shown in the image below for all following games. Use the information from solving the games to continue on your hunt. Example:

